CHRIS COX

CORPORATE & PRIVATE EVENTS

He's got over 60 Billboard #1 hits. A Grammy nomination. Three WMC International Dance Music Awards. 10 mix compilations. Official productions and remixes for Lady Gaga, Ariana Grande, Katy Perry, Rihanna, Daft Punk, Miley Cyrus, Christina Aguilera, Britney Spears, Jennifer Lopez, Janet Jackson, and Madonna. Add to that collaborations with Giorgio Moroder, Perry Farrell, Pete Tong, and Avicii (among others). He's Chris Cox and you most certainly recognize his work.

There's no doubt that Chris Cox is one of the hardest-working DJ/producers in the business—you don't have more than 600 releases, 4 million air miles logged touring, and the respect of your peers without toiling away and constantly perfecting your craft. His studio energy extends into his DJ sets with a passion and fervor that makes Chris Cox your best friend when you are on the dance floor. He curates the proper musical journey to make each event extraordinary. His gifted technical skill and natural musicality have made him a true DJ that many other DJ's watch for inspiration and tips. Cox will dazzle onlookers by often using 3 or 4 Decks and creating live remixes, bootlegs, and buildups.

Chris Cox's career in electronic music first took off working side by side with Academy Award winning music legend Giorgio Moroder. Afterwards, Cox then helped create top-selling label Interhit Records, recipients of the first dance music Grammy. Then came his genre-defining work under the hit-making moniker Thunderpuss.

As a music director, he has put together live musicians and singers for 6 international Lollapalooza festivals, Coachella, Dragapalooza, and Southern California's POPSK8. At most of those events he also created and directed the visual media.

Chris Cox has also been a creative force, both on stage and off, for large scale corporate events on the West Coast. Some of his clients include Disney, NBC, Warner Brothers, HBO, SiriusXM, MTV, Pioneer, Red Bull, The NAMM Show, and The Grammy Awards. Cox has also donated his talents for philanthropic efforts with The Dream Foundation, LIFEbeat, The White House, Broadway for Orlando, and the ASPCA.
